

BINGO

The game whose name says it all!

School- memories- free period- boring lectures- cheating :p

Event type: Offline

Participation mode: Single Player

Inter-collegiate event

Well though it's a game we all have played since our school days the rules are a bit different. Do have a look at them.

Rules and regulations:

- Everyone can select their own bingo ticket from the printed bingo ticket book.
- Random numbers will be called out, which if are present in the ticket are to be struck out by the player.
- Those players will be winners:
 1. Who will be the first to have all the corner boxes struck out.
 2. Who will be the first to have the numbers of an entire horizontal row struck out.
 3. Who will be the first to have the numbers of all corners and all the horizontal rows struck out.
- Players have to raise their hands and announce that they have won as soon as any of the above happens.

karmatek 2017

- Claims of winning a particular segment of the game cannot be made once a winner is announced in that segment. Any pleadings regarding delayed declaration will not be entertained.
- If at the same instant more than 1 player announce winning the same segment, the prize money will be divided.
- Decision of the coordinator regarding the winner is final.
- Rs. 10 has to be submitted as registration for the game.
- A player can play this as many times he wishes, but for every round of the game he plays he has to pay Rs. 10.
- Prizes:
 1. The first to have all the corner boxes struck out will be awarded Rs. 10.
 2. The first to have the numbers of an entire horizontal row struck out will be awarded Rs. 10.
 3. The first to have the numbers of all corners and all the horizontal rows struck out Rs. 20.